

1. Conference Goals

The Conference is directed by Professors Isabel Fernández Torres and Mónica Fuentes Naharro and jointly organized by the Real Colegio Complutense, the Institute for Global Law and Policy (Harvard Law School) and the Department of Business Law at the UCM. The emphasis of this Conference is the analysis and debate about some of the key issues in the current regulation on corporate law, banking and corporate governance comparing the European experience (with special reference to the Spanish situation) with the U.S., as well as the new trends on insolvency regulation. The structure of the Conference tries to promote a fruitful exchange between all the speakers and provide attendees with information and materials especially valid with respect to the issues discussed.

2. Potential Attendants

The Conference has been prepared considering that the attendees will be mainly young researchers, university professors and lawyers with expertise in the subjects treated. For both the monitoring of certain classes and for proper utilization of the materials to be provided to attendees, it requires a good level of English proficiency.

3. Materials

An abridged version and/or materials of the different contributions will be provided to attendees in advance. Also, after the Conference has taken place, the lectures and participations of attendants can be published as working papers of the Business Law Department (UCM).

4. Speakers and Conferences

The Conference counts with professors as speakers from Complutense Law School and from Harvard Law School, well known for their contributions in the areas assigned. The presentations are conducted mainly in English, with no interpretation services.

5. Venue

Harvard Law School. Cambridge, 02138 (MA).

6. Sponsors

For the organization of the Conference, organizers have been sponsored by Banco Santander, Colegio de Registradores Mercantiles y de la Propiedad, Fundación Ramón Areces and Colegio Notarial de Madrid.

7. Registration and tuition

Those interested in attending the Conference should submit, before the next September 10th, 2022, a proof of payment of tuition and personal data to the Directors of the Seminar, Prof. Isabel Fernández and Prof. Mónica Fuentes, Business Law Department (isfern@ucm.es; mfuentes@ucm.es). The tuition fee is free for professors and researchers affiliated with the Faculty of Law at the Universidad Complutense, with the Real Colegio Complutense or with the Harvard Law School, and $1000 for all those who do not hold that condition. The registration fee shall be paid out to Real Colegio Complutense in the following account: Bank of America, 100 Federal Street Boston, MA 02110. Acct Num: 004614155363. Swift: BOFAUS3N.
